

“People with Asperger's or autism often lack the feelings of empathy that naturally guide most people in their interactions with others.” — John Elder Robinson, author of Look Me in the Eye

SOCIAL SKILLS WORKSHOP

Location: 97 Main Street, Hamburg, NY 14075

Date: February 24, 2016

Time: 6:00_{pm} – 8:00_{pm}

Spend some time with us and Alanna Lipinski at ASI's Resource Center. Alanna is a psychology intern at the Institute for Autism Research at Canisius College and will be discussing the varying levels of difficulty with social interaction and communication that children with autism spectrum disorder will have throughout their lifespan. This workshop will cover the importance of social skills, as well as strategies for teaching social skills in the home and community. There will be a specific focus on social nuances and rules, conversational skills, and face and emotion recognition.

Please RSVP with Sara Spaulding at sspaulding@autism-services-inc.org or 716-992-0131

We look forward to seeing you!
