Autism Services, Inc. to Open Hamburg Site Ribbon Cutting Ceremony Set for February 27, 2015

Williamsville, New York – (February 3, 2015) – Officials with Autism Services, Inc. (ASI) recently announced plans for the opening of its Autism Services Inc. Resource Center, which will be located at 97 Main Street in the Village of Hamburg. The organization will hold a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for this 3,000 square foot facility on Friday, February 27, 2015, at 11:00 a.m.

The Resource Center will serve as a:

- Facility for outreach activities
- Conference center
- Gathering place for support groups, including Asperger's, sibling support, and social skills
- Arts Work gallery space
- Respite location
- Lending resource library

“It has been a goal of ASI’s for many years to directly serve our families and others in the Southtowns community,” notes ASI Executive Director, Veronica Federiconi. “Now, as a result of our partnership with J.P.’s Foundation and its annual Run the ‘Burg, we will have the ability to provide much-needed resources and services to those who are the most in need.”
