Autism Services, Inc. Announces Staff Appointment North Tonawanda Resident Named Day Services Administrator

Williamsville, New York – (September 2, 2015) – Autism Services, Inc. (ASI) recently announced the appointment of Marla Gressley, a human services professional for more than 21 years, as Day Services Administrator.

In her role with Autism Services, Ms. Gressley oversees daily operation of the agency's two Day Habilitation Programs, as well as its Supplemental Day Habilitation Program. Her responsibilities include oversight of staff, budgets and the evaluation of all program systems. Additionally, she ensures that regulations handed down from the New York State Office for People with Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) are successfully met.

Prior to joining Autism Services, Ms. Gressley served as Day Program Supervisor with the Resource Center as well as Summer Camp Counselor for New Visions, Inc., both located in Chautauqua County, New York.

A graduate of St. Bonaventure University, Ms. Gressley holds a Master of Science degree in education, with a concentration in psychology. She is a member of the Rollin' Athletic Club Inclusion Network (RACIN), an organization whose volunteers assist individuals that utilize wheelchairs as they compete in local 5K races. A nature enthusiast, Ms. Gressley resides in North Tonawanda, New York, with her two dogs and enjoys hiking, biking, kayaking and camping throughout the Niagara Frontier.
