Join us at ASI's Resource Center for an Introduction to RPM Presentation featuring personal stories from RPM Parent / Practitioners, an overview of RPM, video clips demonstrating RPM and Q & A. Presented by Buffalo RPM cofounders and RPM Parent / Practitioners Laurie Bernstein, Lisa Clinton and Lisa Reyes.

Rapid Prompting Method, commonly known as RPM, is an effective method of education and communication for those individuals who are unable to use speech reliably to communicate. Developed by Soma Mukhopadhyay, a mother of a severely affected nonverbal child with autism, RPM has unlocked the voices of many people around the world. RPM has recently been featured on WGRZ Channel 2 News.

Buffalo RPM is a non-profit 501(c)3 Corporation. The mission of Buffalo RPM is to empower people with autism and related disabilities with Rapid Prompting Method (RPM). RPM is a means to express learning, understanding, reasoning, and thought which can lead to educational growth, self-expression, and fuller participation in society. The workshop is free and open to the public. For more information visit: www.buffalorpm.org
